

Capital Project Underway

Upper St Clair

Thanks to funding from the Township capital budget, The Friends of the Library, and the Library Endowment Fund, a great new discovery layout will soon be coming to the adult nonfiction room of the library. This renovation will create an approachable, intuitive, welcoming, and browser-friendly space. It will also provide areas for both quiet study and collaboration.

Jack Buncher Foundation Gifts

THANKS

Last summer the Jack Buncher Foundation gifted $134,000 in match pool funds to all of the libraries in Allegheny County.

We recently learned, to our surprise, that the Foundation has allocated an additional $5,000 to every library in the county!

With these additional funds, we will purchase more book display units for our nonfiction room renovation.

We are grateful to the Jack Buncher Foundation for providing such generous funding to our Allegheny County libraries.

Books for sale all the time

The Friends resell gently used books in the library on an ongoing basis. Check out the displays on both floors.

The Friends have also started an online bookstore with Amazon. Look for us there if you are online shopping for used books.

Books can be donated at any time

Bring your used books to the library during open hours. The Friends also collect books the first Saturday of every month from 10 a.m. to noon.

Your books will find a good home — and you'll have room for new ones!

Recycle here!

Every old printer ink cartridge, old cell phone, and old rechargeable battery you put in the collection boxes in the library lobby brings us NEW cash!

USC Connect: Books to your door

Let us bring the Library to you! If you are a USC resident and unable to get to the library on your own, we can set up a monthly delivery to your door. You can receive standard and large print books as well as audio books and DVDs on a regular basis.

You are eligible if you have:

- a short or long-term illness
- a senior non-driver status
- a physical challenge
- a visual disability
