Summer Reading 2016

Kids: On Your Mark, Get Set . . . READ!

Fun activities for all ages, from babies to teens, are available on the kids floor this summer. Many area businesses and our own Friends of the Library have contributed prizes and funds to make this an enjoyable and exciting way for kids to get into reading this summer. Kids who read Succeed!

Adults: Exercise Your Mind . . . READ!

It's so easy. Read a library book and enter a ticket for each book you read for a chance to win in our Adult Summer Reading Raffles. Two winners will be drawn every Friday in July. Target gift cards have been supplied by the Friends of the Library as prizes.

A new component of the summer reading program is a countywide digital literacy challenge. Learn about the online products the library offers and answer questions to be entered into weekly prize drawings.

Annual Book Sale

New Dates + New Times + New Location = SUCCESS!

The 2016 Friends Used Book Sale was held the first week of May. The dates and times of the sale were changed and it was held at the MAC (McLaughlin Run Activity Center).

Sale proceeds exceeded those of 2015, and we thank everyone who worked and shopped the sale. All proceeds benefit the library. The Friends of the Library are FRIENDS indeed!
