

Create It! Summer Fun

Library patrons are enjoying all sorts of creative activities at the library this summer.

A coloring table on the adult floor has provided grownups and kids with a relaxing break and it has generated lots of smiles from others walking past.

Four evening coloring sessions for adults have proven that coloring isn't just for kids. And, Painting with a Twist came to the library for a sold-out event in July.

Every day on the kids floor there was a new learning activity to explore, along with summer reading reporting and bead bracelet creations. (A bead given for every book read!)

Many thanks to the Friends of the Library for supporting these artistic and reading endeavors.

Creativity and Reading are alive and well in USC!

All About Books!

Want Books?

The Friends resell gently used books in the library on an ongoing basis. Check out the displays on both floors of the library.

The Friends have also started an online bookstore with Amazon, so look for us there when you are online shopping for used books!

Have Too Many Books?

Bring them to the library during open hours.

The Friends also collect used books every first Saturday of the month from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Your books will find a good home and you'll have room for more new ones!
