Holi is the annual Hindu celebration that marks the end of winter and honors the triumph of good over evil. It is sometimes called the “Festival of Spring” or “Festival of Colors.” Holi originated in India but is celebrated all over the world. It is celebrated on the last full moon in the Hindu month of Phalguna (late February or March). During Holi, celebrants light bonfires, throw colored water and “gulal” (colored powder), eat sweets, and dance to traditional folk music.
